On 18 July 1954, the castle at Ebreichsdorf (P 48/X 76) was guarded by a sentry. Five trucks with van-like superstructures were parked in the garages. The long-wire antenna north of the castle was replaced by a cage aerial. The entrance gate of the castle was repaired by civilian masons. Truck occupied by soldiers with blue-bordered black and black-bordered black epaulets, and truck carrying female civilians were observed at the installation. The vehicles were driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets. The long-wire antenna on the northwestern corner of the building at 25 Wiener Strasse was replaced by a braced six-meter high antenna mast.

Comment. The Soviet troops at Ebreichsdorf have not been identified.
